

Your Personal Accident Protection Certificate of Insurance

COMPLIMENTARY COVERAGE

Thank you for requesting complimentary Personal Accident Protection. We are pleased to protect you in case you die from an accident.

This certificate is a valuable source of information about your Personal Accident Protection. Please keep it in a safe place.

In this certificate, “we,” “us” and “our” mean RBC Life Insurance Company. “You” and “your” mean the person who requested this Personal Accident Protection.

To be eligible for Personal Accident Protection, you provided a response of “YES” to the following eligibility statements:

- I am between the ages of 18 and 79.
- I am a resident of Canada for at least six months of each calendar year.
- I am a customer of Royal Bank of Canada or any of its subsidiaries.

WHEN YOUR INSURANCE COVERAGE BEGINS

WHEN YOUR INSURANCE COVERAGE ENDS

Your Personal Accident Protection ends on the earliest of any of the following dates:

- The date you are no longer a customer of Royal Bank of Canada or of any of its subsidiaries;
- The date you are no longer a Canadian resident;
- The date you reach age 80;
- The date we stop offering it because the Group Policy providing this coverage has been cancelled;
- The date you die.

If we stop offering Personal Accident Protection to customers, we will send you written notice at least 60 days before your insurance coverage ends.

WHAT WE PAY

If you die within one year directly from injuries caused only by an accident, we will pay the Accidental Death benefit to your beneficiary, if there is one; if not, then we will pay it to your estate. The amount of your Accidental Death benefit is shown in the left-hand column on the first page.

This policy contains a provision removing or restricting the right of the group person insured to designate persons to whom or for whose benefit insurance money is to be payable.

Definitions

This certificate uses the following definitions for “accident” and “beneficiary”:

- An accident means a violent, external incident that is sudden, involuntary and unforeseen, causing bodily injuries directly and independently of any other cause.
- Your beneficiary is the person who will receive the money from your Personal Accident Protection when you die and the claim is payable. Your beneficiary will be your estate, unless you have designated a different one in writing and sent that notice to us.

WHEN WE DON'T PAY

We will not pay the Accidental Death benefit if your death results directly or indirectly from any of the following:

- Sickness, disease, regardless of how acquired, or medical or surgical treatment (except where this treatment is rendered necessary because of bodily injury caused by accident within the scope of this insurance and within 365 days of that accident);
- Any voluntary ingestion of poison, toxic substances or non-toxic substances or drugs, sedatives or narcotics, whether illicit or prescribed, in such quantity that they become toxic; or any voluntary inhalation of gas;
- Any event or illness directly or indirectly related to the ingestion of alcohol, while the concentration of alcohol exceeds 80 milligrams of alcohol in 100 milliliters of blood or while you are intoxicated due to the voluntary ingestion of drugs;
- War or act of war, declared or undeclared;
- Use (or threat of use) of biological, chemical or nuclear weapons and/or devices;
- Riots or civil commotions;
- The commission or attempted commission of a criminal offense;
- Riding or driving as a professional in any kind of race for prize money or profit;
- Intentional self-injury, suicide or attempted suicide, whether sane or insane;
- Dangerous sports such as, but not limited to, scuba diving, bungee jumping, sky diving or parachuting; and
- An air travel accident, unless you were a fare-paying passenger on a regularly scheduled commercial airline flight.

We must receive the completed forms and proof of death within 90 days of the date of death. Otherwise, we may not pay any benefits. If, however, it is not possible to provide the proof of death within 90 days, the beneficiary has up to one year to submit the proof.

If we feel that we don't have enough information about the claim, we may order an autopsy, where the law allows us.

If we decide not to pay any benefits, the beneficiary may start legal action to seek the benefits we didn't pay. The limitation period within which the beneficiary must start legal action varies depending on the province in which you reside.

- Every action or proceeding against an insurer for the recovery of insurance money payable under the contract is absolutely barred unless commenced within the time set out in the Insurance Act (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Alberta and British Columbia), The Insurance Act (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Manitoba), the Limitations Act, 2002 (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Ontario), or in other applicable legislation in your province of residence.
